

Accessing Mental Health & Counseling Services

For military active duty, guard, reserve, retired, veterans and their families

Hill Mental Health Clinic - 801-777-7909

The Mental Health Clinic provides outpatient behavioral health care to active duty military beneficiaries, to include counseling and medication services. Services may also be available to non-active duty and adult TRICARE beneficiaries on a space available basis (referrals provided by your primary care manager.)

(Active duty service members and adult TRICARE beneficiaries on space available)

Primary Care Behavioral Health (PCBH)- appointment line- 801-586-2273/ 800-453-2388

Located in the Hill Clinic, this program offers confidential personalized assistance to those experiencing anxiety, insomnia, depression, relationship problems, weight management, substance abuse, chronic pain or other life stressors. (TRICARE beneficiaries)

TRICARE Health Net Behavioral Health- 844-866-9378

For mental health care or counseling, talk with your primary care manager (PCM) or family doctor. Your PCM can provide an initial assessment and provide treatment, or can recommend additional treatment with the appropriate mental health provider to suit your needs. Prior Authorization and Referral Requirements: To determine if a service requires an approval from Health Net Federal Services, use the Prior Authorization, Referral and Benefit Tool or talk with your provider. If you are seeing more than one provider, it is important to keep all providers informed so they are aware of any medications and treatment you may be receiving.

Military and Family Life Counselors (MFLC)

To get the phone numbers for these counselors call the A&FRC at 801-777-4681.

This program is free and no documentation is kept or shared. This is non-medical counseling; for evaluations, diagnosis or a known mental health condition use TRICARE or other insurance for services. For children's services there are MFLC's with the CDC's and Youth Center and an MFLC embedded with the Davis School District, housed at Hill Field Elementary (the child does not have to attend Hill Field, CDC or YC to use to use this service.) In addition there are MFLC's located at the A&FRC for individual, marriage, family counseling and single Airmen. These counselors can meet you at their facility or at another public location of your choosing.

(Active duty, Guard and reserve, their family members and survivors, and veterans 6 months post leaving AD)

Military OneSource - 800-342-9647

Military OneSource offers access to non-medical counseling. This link will take you to a page that explains their confidential non-medical counseling services. It is important to scroll down to see which services are not covered and remember if dealing with any of those issues you should use TRICARE or a crisis center. Scrolling further down it explains how to access the service.

US Department of Veterans Affairs

Your mental health is a critical component to your overall wellness. If you are experiencing mental health challenges, or suspect a family member would benefit from talking to a mental health provider, VA offers ways to help. Veterans and their family members can connect with support through in-person appointments at local VA facilities, telehealth sessions, and online resources. Learn more about how you or someone you care about can find help, either in your local community or online. (US military veterans)
